1. This decision is issued regarding the request of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela (the “Applicant on Annulment”, “Venezuela” or the “Republic”) to maintain the provisional stay on the execution of the award issued on July 25, 2017 by the tribunal comprised of Messrs. Eduardo Zuleta (President), Yves Derains and Horacio Grigera Naón (the “Tribunal”) in ICSID Case No. ARB/13/11, initiated by Valores Mundiales, S.L. and Consorcio Andino, S.L. (the “Respondents on Annulment” or “Valores and Consorcio” and, jointly with the Applicant on Annulment, the “Parties”) against Venezuela (the “Award”).

107. In this case, in light of what has been commented, the Committee considers that the existence of circumstances that require the continuation of the stay of enforcement of the Award, pursuant to Article 52(5) of the ICSID Convention, has not been proven. In this regard, the Committee deems particularly relevant the difficulties encountered in ensuring compliance with the ICSID awards issued against Venezuela and the fact that Venezuela has officially declared its policy of opposition to compliance with those awards, circumstances that have also been considered in other decisions issued by annulment committees.

108. Therefore, the Committee concludes that there are no reasons to continue the stay of enforcement of the Award.

VI. DECISION

113. For the foregoing reasons the Committee decides:

- a. To lift the provisional stay of enforcement of the Award; and
- b. To reserve its decision on costs.
