3. Where the dispute is to be referred to international arbitration, the investor and the Contracting Party involved in the dispute may agree to refer the dispute either to:
 - a. the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) under the rules of the International Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States opened for signature at Washington, D.C on 18 March 1965, when such Contracting Party has become a party to the said Convention.

As long as this requirement is not met each Contracting Party agrees that the dispute may be settled under the rules of the Additional Facility of the Administration of proceedings by the Secretariat of ICSID.

- b. an ad hoc tribunal to be established under the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commissions on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

ARTICLE VIII

Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Any disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this agreement should, if possible, be settled through negotiations between the governments of the two Contracting Parties.
2. If the dispute cannot thus be settled within a period of six months, following the date on which such negotiations were requested by either Contracting Party it may upon the request of either Contracting Party be submitted to any arbitral tribunal.
3. Such an arbitral tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way: within two months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member for the tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State who, upon approval by the two Contracting Parties, shall be appointed Chairman of the tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within two months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph (3) of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made either Contracting Party may in the absence of any other agreement invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function. The Vice-President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he/she too is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in Seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party and not prevented from discharging such function shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.
5. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member to the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its decisions direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Contracting Parties, and this award shall be binding on and executed by both Contracting Parties. The tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

ARTICLE IX Subrogation

If the investments of a investors of the one Contracting Party are insured against non-commercial risks under a system established by law, any subrogation of the insurer or re-insurer to the rights of the said investor pursuant to the terms of such insurance shall be recognized by the other Contracting Party, provided, however, that the insurer or the re-insurer shall not be entitled to exercise any rights other than the rights which the investor would have been entitled to exercise.

ARTICLE X
Application of other Rules

1. If the provisions of law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to the present Agreement contain rules, whether general or specific entitling investments and returns of investors of the other Contracting Party to treatment more favourable than that is provided for by the present Agreement such rules shall to the extent that they are more favourable prevail over the present Agreement.
2. Each Contracting Party shall, however, honor any obligation it may have entered into with regard to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XI
Scope of the Agreement

1. This Agreement shall apply:
 - a) in the case of the Republic of Indonesia, to investments by investors of the Republic of Mozambique in the territory of the Republic of Indonesia which have been previously granted admission in accordance with the Law No. 1 of 1967 concerning Foreign Investment and any law amending or replacing it.
 - b) in the case of the Republic of Mozambique, to all investments made whether before or after the entry into force of this Agreements in conformity with the Law no. 4/84 of the August 18th 1984 or under the Investment Law no 3/93 of the June 24th 1993, or under any other subsequent legislation in force in investments in the Republic of Mozambique; and

2. This Agreement shall apply to all investments, whether made before or after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, but the provisions of this Agreement shall not apply to any dispute, claim or difference which arose before its entry into force.

ARTICLE XII Consultation and Amendment

1. Either Contracting Party may request that consultations be held on any matter concerning this Agreement. The other Party shall accord sympathetic consideration to the proposal and shall afford adequate opportunity for such consultations.
2. This Agreement may be amended at any time, if deemed necessary, by mutual consent of both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE XIII Entry into Force, Duration and Termination

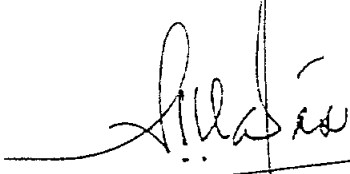

1. The present Agreement shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after the date of the latest notification by which Contracting Parties have notified each other that their constitutional requirements for the entry into force of this Agreement have been fulfilled.
2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten (10) years and shall continue in force thereafter for similar period unless either Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party in writing of its intention to terminate this Agreement one year before its expiration.
3. With respect to investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be effective for a period of ten (10) years from the date termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized thereto, by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
